Worship Aid and Bulletin

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Entrance Antiphon

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

We give You thanks for Your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father.

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the holy one. You alone are the Lord.
You alone are most high, Jesus Christ.
With the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Opening Prayer

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.
If he gives his life as an offering for sin,
he shall see his descendants in a long life,
and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Because of his affliction
he shall see the light in fullness of days;
through his suffering, my servant shall justify many,
and their guilt he shall bear.

The Word of the Lord. R: Thanks be to God

Responsorial: Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

R. Lord, let your mer - cy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1.. Upright is the word of the LORD, and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.
2. See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,

To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine.
3. Our soul waits for the LORD, who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters:
Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens,
Jesus, the Son of God,
let us hold fast to our confession.
For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way,

yet without sin.
So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

The Word of the Lord. R: Thanks be to God.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him,
"Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."
He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?"
They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."
Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking.
Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?"
They said to him, "We can."
Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink,
and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized;
but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John.
Jesus summoned them and said to them,
"You know that those who are recognized as rulers
over the Gentiles
lord it over them,
and their great ones make their authority over them felt.
But it shall not be so among you.
Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant;
whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.
For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Dear Community Members,

“Who is the greatest?” That is a question that pulls at each one of us. It is rooted in pride and is the gateway to all the other vices.

But Jesus offers us a solution, it is pure, simple and effective: be a servant.

A servant is humble and seeks to satisfy the needs of those they are called to minister to. Then Jesus gives us a glimpse of God’s standards – the greatest is “the slave of all.” Humility is the gateway to the other virtues, do it well and we become that which God created us to be.

Let us pray. O God, source of all goodness, you call us to humble ourselves to be servants as we build up the Kingdom. Send your Holy Spirit to transform our hearts and strengthen us in our mission of sharing the Good News, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

During October, we pray that we will all deepen our sense of service to others.

Each year the Church in the United States celebrates October as Respect Life Month. This is a time we can use to deepen our understanding of why, as Catholics, we "Respect Life" and what that looks like day-to-day.

We are also celebrating the Year of St. Joseph. So, this year, we are looking to the witness of St. Joseph as a defender of life. He didn't hesitate to follow God's will of faithfully caring for and protecting Jesus and the Blessed Mother. St. Joseph's example reminds us that we are also to care for, protect, and defend the lives of our brothers and sisters.

Go to respectlife.org/celebrate for more information.

RCIA TO START SOON - Are you interested in becoming Catholic? Perhaps you need to catch up on your sacraments. We invite you to join RCIA. Please contact Sheryl in the church office at 410-257-3810 x1001 to be added to the RCIA class.

Join us on Monday, November 1 at 8:00 a.m. in the church for the celebration of All Saints. Since All Saints falls on a Monday this year, All Saints is not a holy day of obligation, but a holy day of option. We will have one Mass at 8:00 a.m. in the church.

It is a custom of the Catholic Church to pray for the happy repose of souls. All are welcome to attend our Mass of Remembrance, featuring the Faure Requiem with a guest organist on Saturday, November 6 at 4:30 p.m.

A candle will be lit for everyone who had a funeral at JGS since All Souls last year and those families will also be invited to the Mass.

We are collecting the names of those who have died this past year. Those names will be placed in a vessel which will be brought forward to the altar and prayed over by Father Mike and the congregation during the Mass. The names will also appear in the bulletin on November 13-14. However, those names will not be read at Mass.

If you have lost a loved one this past year and you would like their name to be placed in the vessel, you may use the All Souls envelopes found in the envelope holders in the vestibule. Please place completed All Souls envelopes in the mail slot of the church office. Please write legibly.

All are welcome to join us for a community dinner after the Mass. Please RSVP for the dinner so we know how much food to prepare. A link to RSVP will be in the next bulletin or the flocknote. Or call the Laura or Sheryl in the office at 410-257-3810.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It's the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn't work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one's relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion. ©LPI

ARE YOU ON FAITH

DIRECT? Offertory is essential to your JGS church operations! JGS relies heavily on Sunday offertory to maintain operational budgets, staff, and resources for our community. It is essential that, during this isolation time, we continue to give an offering to our church for it to be sustained in the future. Questions? Contact Pam Huseman accounting@ccjgs.org

OFFERTORY IS COLLECTED AS FOLLOWS:

Via FaithDirect • go to ccjgs.org/partners

Online Banking • You can send us your offertory through your personal online banking, just like you pay your bills. Please use the mailing address below.

BY MAIL • You can mail your offertory envelope to the church:

To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offertory and involvement.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION - Parents seeking baptism are encouraged to call the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org. We invite all new (and expecting!) parents to a baptism retreat to be held 3 times per year.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.
