2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher— "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." - Jn 1:38-39a

Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community Covenant Prayer

Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service.

We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this Jesus' name. Amen

Introductory Rites

Entrance Antiphon

“All the earth shall bow down before you, O God, and shall sing to you,
shall sing to your name, O most high!”

Introductory Rites

Greeting

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Opening Prayer

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19

Samuel was sleeping in the temple of the LORD where the ark of God was. The LORD called to Samuel, who answered, “Here I am.” Samuel ran to Eli and said, “Here I am. You called me.” “I did not call you,” Eli said. “Go back to sleep.” So he went back to sleep. Again the LORD called Samuel, who rose and went to Eli. “Here I am,” he said. “You called me.” But Eli answered, “I did not call you, my son. Go back to sleep.”

At that time Samuel was not familiar with the LORD, because the LORD had not revealed anything to him as yet. The LORD called Samuel again, for the third time. Getting up and going to Eli, he said, “Here I am. You called me.” Then Eli understood that the LORD was calling the youth. So he said to Samuel, “Go to sleep, and if you are called, reply, Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.” When Samuel went to sleep in his place, the LORD came and revealed his presence, calling out as before, “Samuel, Samuel!” Samuel answered, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”

Samuel grew up, and the LORD was with him, not permitting any word of his to be without effect.

1. I have waited, waited for the LORD, and he stooped toward me and heard my cry. And he put a new song into my mouth, a hymn to our God.

2. Sacrifice or offering you wished not, but ears open to obedience you gave me. Holocausts or sin-offerings you sought not; then said I, “Behold I come.”

3. “In the written scroll it is prescribed for me, to do your will, O my God, is my delight, and your law is within my heart!”

4. I announced your justice in the vast assembly; I did not restrain my lips, as you, O LORD, know.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20

Brothers and sisters: The body is not for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body; God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? But whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one Spirit with him. Avoid immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the immoral person sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been purchased at a price. Therefore glorify God in your body.

Gospel: John 1:35-42

John was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, “Behold, the Lamb of God.” The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” — which translated means Teacher —, “where are you staying?” He said to them, “Come, and you will see.” So they went and saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about four in the afternoon. Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus. He first found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah” — which is translated Christ —. Then he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon the son of John; you will be called Cephas” — which is translated Peter.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Universal Prayer

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Music during the Preparation of the Altar and the Gifts

Instrumental: The Summons (Kelvingrove, John L. Bell)

The offertory baskets will not be passed, instead we ask that you give your offering on your way in or on your way out in the contactless drop baskets.

To maintain the brevity of the Mass and protection of all during this pandemic, the Eucharistic Acclamations will be recited.

During Communion: The direction for communion is the opposite of what we used to do. We will be using the side aisles to receive and return on the opposite aisle.

The outside sections go first and then the center sections. Center sections, please remain kneeling until it is your turn.

Please use the markings on the floor to maintain 6ft from other families in the communion aisle out of care for our community.

An Act of Spiritual Communion by St. Alphonsus Liguori

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritual-ly into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I think all of us were horrified at the violence which erupted in Washington on January 6. We treasure our Nation's Capitol, we treasure the right to free speech and the right to assemble, but not at the cost of violence, civil disobedience and threats against human life, be they members and staffers of Congress, police and the protesters themselves. To be sure, there is a clear need for healing on many levels. If there is a time to pray for our nation, this is it. We should do so as individuals, but I recommend that we all try to do something together, as individual families and as a parish family of faith.

Some simple recommendations. These can all be easily "googled":

- As a family, pray together the Prayer of St. Francis
- Prayers for Peace and Civil authorities, composed by Pope Francis and his predecessors, on the website of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops [USCCB]
- Prayer for elected officials on the website of the Maryland Catholic Conference [MCC]

Let us keep in mind also the vigil of the inauguration this Tuesday, January 19th. Why not take time to pray for those who will assume leadership? As a suggestion, google the prayer of our Nation's first Archbishop, John Carroll, of Baltimore.

Let us pray. Loving God, giver of all good gifts, you fulfill the longing in our hearts. Help us in these times to spend more time with your Son. Help us to listen to him bravely and honestly. Through him, reveal that that you offer us and make us eager to accept your many gifts. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Father Mike

THANK YOU TO THE MEN'S CLUB OF JGS: For the outstanding dinner they prepared and served Saturday, January 9. There were approximately 220 carry-out dinners! What occurred, however, was more than a "dinner": it was truly a parish experience and kept our community together during these challenging times. Thank you also to all those who supported the dinner. Proceeds go to the annual Citizenship Awards of the Men's Club, given to deserving high school seniors in the spring.

CAN YOU COMMIT TO AN HOUR OF ADORATION FOR THE NEW YEAR? JGS needs Adorers for one hour on Thursdays between the hours of 8:30—12:00. Adoration takes place in the church. There is plenty of room to spread out. Jesus is waiting for you. Come hear what he has to say. To sign up, click the blue button below, or sign in when you enter the building. Thank you!

MARCH FOR LIFE MORE IMPORTANT THAN EVER! Following a 9:30 a.m. Pro-Life prayer service on Fri. Jan. 29 a bus will depart JGS at 10:30 for the March for Life Rally and March in Washington DC. Given the 2020 election results it is vital for all conscientious Christians to continue to stand up for the sanctity of life! Due to Covid restrictions seating on the bus will be socially distance and therefore limited so sign up early in the atrium starting the weekend of Jan. 2-3 or call Buzz Burek at 301-812-1868 or buzzburek@comcast.net. Note that our bus will be thoroughly sanitized to meet MD certification standards. Thanks, and the unborn babies thank you too!

SHARE FOOD PICK UP NEXT SATURDAY

Pick up your Share Food order next Saturday, Jan 23. Food orders will be available in the JGS Center from 9am-10:30am. Questions: Contact Lynn Robinson 301-467-8550, lynn@rwminc.com.

JGS WOULD LIKE TO THANK ED AND ELAINE REILLY for their donation towards the Christmas flowers. Their names were accidentally left off the list in last weeks bulletin. They left a donation in memory of Bob Baczynski. JGS is grateful for their donation and all the donations made towards the Christmas flowers in 2020.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH SUPPORTS COVID-19 VACCINES: Both COVID vaccines of Moderna and Pfizer are in line with previous moral statements by Pope Benedict XVI and the Pontifical Council for Life. Receiving either vaccine is morally permissible and is certainly an important pro-life decision that would help to defend the most vulnerable members who are at the most risk of developing severe coronavirus cases. Because there is usually not a choice in the vaccine one receives when it becomes available, it is morally permissible to take the vaccine in order to protect the lives of those who are most at risk of serious coronavirus.

For those interested in more information, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith [CDF] published a statement on December 17, 2020 at the request of Pope Francis and he ordered its publication on the morality of using some anti-COVID 19 vaccines. It is available on the Vatican website. The statement reinforces material previously published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops [USCCB] and the Catholic Health Association [CHA].

In addition, the Catholic bishops of Maryland, in a December 12, 2020 letter, strongly recommends all Catholics to receive the COVID-19 vaccines. The administration of the vaccines began December 14 to front-line health care workers across the nation and is also being administered to residents of long-term care facilities.

At this point in time, there is a significant amount of misinformation about the COVID-19 vaccines. In light of the teaching of the Catholic Church, all parishioners are strongly encouraged to consider the life-saving impact of the vaccine, and to receive the vaccine if and when they are able and when the vaccine becomes locally available.

The health protocol measures taken by Jesus the Good Shepherd [e.g., social-distancing, mask wearing, sign-ups at Masses for contact tracing, disinfecting after each Mass, etc.] as well as the new vaccines, will even more assist to protect the lives of all in our community, surrounding community and beyond.

Children's Faith Formation Children's Faith Formation classes (Pre-K4 through 8th) are currently meeting online. Upcoming class dates are Jan 24, and 31.

Interested in volunteering, now or later? The VIRTUS Child Protection workshop is currently being offered via Zoom. The steps for becoming a volunteer have never been easier. Attend the workshop once and it never expires. To sign up, contact Casey Esser (religioused@ccjgs.org), Tammy Genelin (religiousaide@ccjgs.org) or Pam Huseman (accounting@ccjgs.org).

Active Catholic Teens ACT youth group meets from 6:20 to 7:30pm in the Youth Room and Gym. Upcoming sessions are Jan 24 and Feb 7. All high school teens are invited to join us to play games, make friends, and grow in faith. Registration is helpful but not required and is available at ccjgs.org/youthministry. Questions? Contact Casey Esser at youth@ccjgs.org.

Confirmation Preparation Confirmation prep is over two years, typically 8th grade and 9th grade. Our 9th grade Confirmation Preparation this year includes an online group and an in person group. Upcoming sessions are Jan 24 and Feb 7.

The Catholic Mass is filled with rich and beautiful tools to help the people of God grow in their faith. It is the supreme way we celebrate and worship. There are so many layers, prayers, texts, rituals, and hymns that are incorporated into the Mass that it can all be a little overwhelming! We will feature questions from our parishioners that may help shed light on some of the many wonderful aspects of the Mass.

Question of the Week:

"During the prayers before communion, why is Father Mike saying different words than 'When we eat this bread and drink this cup?' Sometimes I hear other responses, am I supposed to know those responses? What are they?"

Due to the pandemic, all of our sung eucharistic acclamations are spoken to avoid congregational singing. The Memorial Acclamation is an acclamation sung or recited by the people after the institution narrative of the Eucharist.

The Memorial Acclamation was introduced into the Roman Rite of Mass in 1969 as part of the revision of the Roman Missal by Pope Paul VI. Previously the only acclamations by the people in the eucharistic prayer were the Sanctus and the Amen to the final doxology. The three acclamations given in the Roman Missal are, in the official revised English translation of 2011, as follows:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
and profess your Resurrection,
until you come again.

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

Save us, Saviour of the world,
for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

Any of these responses are correct, and we follow what the Priest begins if the music is not there to introduce the response.

Do YOU have a question about the Mass?? Send it to music@ccjgs.org and it could be published in the NEXT Bulletin with the answer!

During 2020, JGS and CHA donated a total of 6,640 pounds of food to the Ladies of Charity Food Pantry!

You will be blessed for your outpouring of help to our neighbors who are struggling during this difficult time.

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO ASSISTED LAST WEEKEND: Taking down all the outside and inside Christmas decorations is a HUGE task but once again, it was done – and done very well. Our thanks go to the members of the Men’s Club and the innumerable parishioners who responded. Thanks to all your efforts, we are now back in Ordinary Time and we shall be until the beginning of Lent in mid-February. Even though we have packed away all our Christmas decorations until this coming December, as Christians we never “pack away” Jesus! May Jesus live in our hearts every day of our new year!

COVID-19 UPDATE

Because we love our neighbor, JGS has been operating at a capacity of 25% in the church.

Even though our max capacity is 500, given the shape of the venue, and the pews, we could not safely increase our capacity beyond 125 while keeping 6-ft distances.

With the current pandemic restrictions changing due to COVID numbers going up, please know that we are maintaining this 25% capacity of 125 for each mass, with overflow in the Centre set at 75.

If current conditions concern you, please remember that you can participate in Mass by listening on your car radio at both 8:00am and 10:45am Masses and receive Holy Communion outside.

Contact Laura Cleary at 410-257-3810 (secretary@ccjgs.org) for Mass Cards/ Intentions; Sponsor Certificates (for Sacraments) or to place bulletin announcements. Deadline for bulletin items is Thursday at noon, 10 days before the weekend you want your article to appear. Thank you!

A LITTLE HUMOR: A missionary was walking in Africa when he heard the running of a lion behind him. “O Lord,” prayed the missionary, “I surely pray that the lion walking behind is a good Catholic lion.”

Then, without looking back, the missionary heard the lion praying and felt better until he heard, “Bless us, O Lord, and these thy gifts which we are about to receive from thy bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen!”

THANK YOU TO JGS: “On behalf of the Ladies of Charity Calvert County and those we have the privilege to serve, we sincerely thank you and your congregation for your generous donation during these times of uncertainty. Your gift of $1,240 is significant in enabling us to assist those who are struggling with unemployment, high cost of food and other necessities. You and your congregation have had a lasting impact on the community we service and we are deeply grateful. Again, than you and May God bestow His abundant blessings upon you and your community. “

Sincerely,

Thursdays—10 a.m.—3:00 p.m.

NEW TO PARISH? – Welcome to our Catholic Community! We encourage you to register with us as soon as possible. The best way to connect with us is through Flocknote. From your phone: Text: 84576 Keyword: ccjgs From your computer: <https://app.flocknote.com/ccjgs>
We are having periodic virtual new members meetings, which are announced via flocknote.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS - We are working on holding virtual baptism classes. To get your name on the list for the next class, please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.

Mission Statement: “We, the Roman Catholic Parish of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, have chosen to serve the Lord by evangelizing through the virtues of Hospitality, Spirituality and Stewardship.” 10
