8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." - Lk 6:43, 45

Worship Aid and Bulletin

February 27, 2022 The Eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Greeting

Penitential Rite

Gloria: Glory to God, from the Mass of Christ the Savior, Dan Schutte (this is now found in the pews)

Opening Prayer

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Sirach 27:4-7

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear;
so do one's faults when one speaks.
As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace,
so in tribulation is the test of the just.
The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had;
so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind.
Praise no one before he speaks,
for it is then that people are tested.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

Brothers and sisters:

When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:

Death is swallowed up in victory.

Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?

The sting of death is sin,

and the power of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

The Word of the Lord

R: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

Gospel: Luke 6:39-45

Jesus told his disciples a parable,

“Can a blind person guide a blind person?

Will not both fall into a pit?

No disciple is superior to the teacher;

but when fully trained,

every disciple will be like his teacher.

Why do you notice the splinter in your brother’s eye,

but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?

How can you say to your brother,

‘Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,’

when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye?

You hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first;

then you will see clearly

to remove the splinter in your brother’s eye.

“A good tree does not bear rotten fruit,

nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit.

For every tree is known by its own fruit.

For people do not pick figs from thornbushes,

nor do they gather grapes from brambles.

A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good,

but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil;

for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This last weekend of February means it is soon the beginning of March and the beginning of Lent next week! Enclosed in our bulletin is our annual Lent Booklet. I hope you will keep this handy and look at it occasionally for the many opportunities you can take advantage of during Lent to draw closer to Christ. My deepest thanks for all the staff for their contributions and editing. Many hours went into this booklet.

This coming week, our Shrove Tuesday [Mardi Gras] Pancake Dinner is always a fun event for our community the day before Ash Wednesday. On Ash Wednesday we have four Masses for the blessing and distribution of ashes. I do hope you will make every effort to put aside an hour for Mass to receive your ashes on Ash Wednesday.

I want to sincerely thank all those who have made a pledge so far to the 2022 Annual Appeal. The Appeal is SO important for the continuation of many ministries within our Archdiocese. Two weekends ago we had two permanent deacons from the Office of the Permanent Diaconate share how the Appeal supports their formation program and after-ordination programs. Last weekend, Cardinal Gregory in his pre-recorded homily played at all the Masses stressed the importance of the Appeal from his perspective as our archbishop. This weekend we are blessed with a seminarian from the Archdiocese. Our formation of future priests, too, is funded by the Appeal. God knows we need priests! Your financial support funds their seminary education and formation.

In light of today's Gospel, it is easy to think of ourselves using another of Jesus' "plant metaphors:" we may have a few barren branches, but those are being trimmed so that we can bear more fruit.

Yet when we look at other people, we do not always judge branch by branch; we see them as just a good tree or a bad tree. Each of us is indeed judged by our own fruit – as we will be by the Just Judge whom we will one day face. If we examine ourselves honestly today, what kind of tree do you see?

Let us pray. God of the vineyard, you oversee everything that grows and the fruit that it bears. Grant that our works may produce only that which is good and pleasing in your sight, and accept our lives during this coming Lent as a fruitful offering to you. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

My prayers are with you as we embark on the 40-day Season-Retreat of Lent. God bless you!

Father Mike

A Hidden Life: A martyr in the making, Franz Jägerstätter

Join us in the Upper Media Center on Sunday March 6 at 9:20am-10:20am for this Lenten Reflection on A Hidden Life. A Hidden Life is available on Apple TV ($3.99), Amazon Prime ($3.99), Google Play ($3.99), or purchase for 19.99. A Hidden Life may be viewed before or after the discussion.

JGS parishioner, Dr. David Walsh, professor of politics at The Catholic University of America, will lead the discussion.

Learn about Terence Malick's breathtaking movie, A Hidden Life, and then discuss its importance and relevance to evangelization in our modern times! In, A Hidden Life, we hear about blessed Franz Jägerstätter, the solitary Austrian who refused to serve in the Nazi Army, and how his bravery to take a stand gives witness to our call as missionary disciples.

In Dr. Walsh's own words from his published article on the movie, "thanks to the arrival of A Hidden Life, I have gained a perspective on an extraordinary witness who lived far from the fame and notoriety by which we usually judge what matters."

Presentation begins at 6:30 p.m.

All food will donated will benefit the Ladies of Charity Food Pantry in North Beach, Maryland. All food donated by March 26 and 27th will be counted and weighed and added to the Archdiocesan Food Drive calculation.

NEW MINISTRY

Covenant Sunday Team — Hello JGS Parishioners!

This is an excellent opportunity for families that may be new to the parish or those that wish to get to know others in the parish. You all know how much we enjoy our annual Covenant Sunday? To keep this annual tradition going, we need some volunteer families to organize the event in this truly giving ministry. We would like to have a couple of families who could take over the planning and organizing of the event. Other ministries and volunteers do the work that make the day run successfully. We will provide all the information you will need to make it happen. This is a great opportunity for families to work together as a team and get to know others in the parish! Please contact Katie in the church office for more information.

NEW TO PARISH? – Welcome to our Catholic Community! We encourage you to register with us as soon as possible. To register go to ccjgs.org/im-new. The best way to connect with us is through Flocknote. From your phone: Text: 84576 Keyword: ccjgs From your computer: <https://app.flocknote.com/ccjgs>. To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offering and involvement.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION - Parents seeking baptism are encouraged to call the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org. We invite all new (and expecting!) parents to a baptism retreat to be held 3 times per year.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.

Mission Statement: “We, the Roman Catholic Parish of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, have chosen to serve the Lord by evangelizing through the virtues of Hospitality, Spirituality and Stewardship.” 10
