Dear Brothers and Sisters,

What a wonderful weekend we had last weekend! On Saturday, we had our annual retreat called JESUS DAY for all of our young people who are preparing for their First Eucharist this spring.

As always, it was a wonderful experience for them, their parents and for me! There are four different "sections" of the retreat: Sacred Space, Banners of Faith, Religious Scavenger Hunt and Reconciliation. It was great to see the children get so engaged and excited about spiritual things. And not a few parents came up to me afterward and said, "Father, I didn't know that!"

As adults, we are all called to learn more and deepen our Catholic faith. But this is also how we pass on our Catholic Faith to the next generation. Faith is not just "taught." It is "caught." Are we so excited about our faith that we want to pass on the Good News to our children, to our next generation, to our non-Catholic neighbors, our friends?

Last Saturday evening, we had a wonderful dinner sponsored by the Men's Club of our community. It was the largest turnout ever! On Sunday at the 8 and 10:45 a.m. Masses, we celebrated the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord with the distribution and blessing of candles. At the latter Mass, the children's choir united with the adult choir and some instrumentalists. What a beautiful and moving Mass that was in particular.

In our Gospel today, Jesus uses two "home" images: "salt" and "light." He uses such to teach the disciples how important they are in sharing his mission. Notice that Jesus uses the emphatic phrasing: "You are . . ." Not you can be, or you might be, or maybe you will be.

No, He is very direct in naming them as salt and light, they are "change" agents. Just as salt adds flavor to food and light dispels the darkness, so will they transform the world by their witness and their good deeds. In accepting this identity, we bring glory to God.

Let us pray. You have sent us your Son, O God, to be a light for the nations and a savior of all people. Grant to us an untiring spirit that we might transform the darkness of this world by actions that are just and merciful. May our light reflect that of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen!

Father Mike

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

ANNOUNCE THE GOOD NEWS

Before the arrival of GPS and other technological advances, folks relied on a compass to assist them with directions. If set and used properly, people who would otherwise be lost could find their way. What properly sets our God compass? We know that we require God in order to find our way through life, but we need to be in proper relationship with God before this can effectively happen. God certainly does not need to be placated, but some things open Him up to us more than others. Isaiah gives us a clue today. Share your bread with the hungry ... clothe the naked ... remove oppression, false accusation, and malicious speech ... satisfy the afflicted. When we do this, we will not only be on proper course and in right relationship with God, but will be the salt and light Jesus asks us to be.

News on the work of the people

A Lenten Chant Mass Setting

Through Lent the Music Ministry will be introducing a mass setting called “The Belmont Mass: A chant mass for the people of God.” This setting is by Christopher Walker, and is in memory of a Benedictine monk in Belmont Abbey, England. It is very accessible because it is chant in English and can be accompanied or unaccompanied. During the season of Lent, we take time for penitence, simplicity, and unity, which this mass setting fully embraces. We will continue the Kyrie and Agnus Dei from the Roman Missal Latin Chant, but the Holy, Mystery of Faith, and Great Amen will be in English from the Belmont Mass. This will complete our parish cycle of having 4 different seasonal Mass parts for Advent/Christmas, Ordinary Times, Lent and Easter. This is all possible because of YOU! As an Assembly, YOU at Jesus the Good Shepherd value singing as a supreme form of prayer and praise! Thank you for all of your participation within this musical cycle during our Liturgical Year!

Liturgical Lent Trivia!

“313... the organ and other musical instruments should be used with a moderation that is consistent with the season’s character and does not anticipate the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord. In Lent the playing of the organ and musical instruments is allowed only to support the singing. Exceptions are Laetare Sunday (Fourth Sunday of Lent), Solemnities, and Feasts.” – General Instruction for the Roman Missal.

During Lent, the church wants us to use instruments with moderation and consistent with the season’s character. While the organ’s main focus is the support of the singing, there is an omission of solos during the Prelude, Offertory, and Postlude. Watch for this change within our own church and embrace the silence that Lent can bring for a conversation with Christ.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick:

If you or a family member is ill and facing surgery and would like to be anointed, please feel free to contact the church office. When it is not an emergency, please call before going to the hospital. For those who are sick and homebound, you are most welcome to contact the church office for the same.

A gentle “reminder” that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick has been restored by the Church as the sacrament primarily to be given to those who are sick and to those who face and/or recovering from surgery.

DO YOU ENJOY HOSPITALITY AFTER MASS? Volunteers are needed for weekend hospitality. This is a great ministry for families and individuals looking to get involved and meet lots of people! Help is especially needed for the 10:45 Mass. Please call the church office if you can help.

FOOD COLLECTION CONTINUES: Most needed at this time—canned fruit, canned vegetables and cereal. Many thanks for your generosity to our neighbors in need.

The Virtue of Stewardship

Safety and Security—February Message

Like everywhere else, JGS is in the middle of the cold and flu season. In these times it best to avoid close contact with people who are sick and if you are sick, remember others. You can be infectious for five to seven days after symptoms appear. Cover your mouth and nose with disposable tissue when coughing or sneezing. The CDC recommends that after possible exposure, wash with soap and water, or if soap and water are unavailable, use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol to clean hands.

SAVE THE DATE: VIRTUAL CATHOLIC DAY OF ACTION!

Maryland Catholic Conference [MCC] will host our first-ever virtual Catholic Day of Action on February 19, 2020. The virtual Catholic Day of Action will encourage Catholics across Maryland to join together to send messages, make phone calls and take other meaningful actions on state issues, from wherever they are that day.

“We are excited to kick off this new virtual Catholic Day of Action this year and spur even more of our Catholic faithful to get involved on our issues,” said Jenny Kraska, executive director of the MCC. “You don’t have to give up your evening and drive to Annapolis to be a voice for the work of the Church, you can join us from wherever you are by tweeting, calling, sending emails and engaging in conversations on social media that help us make a difference on many critical issues.”

To be kept up-to-date on the virtual Catholic Day of Action, make sure you have joined the Catholic Advocacy Network: www.mdccatholic.org/2020dayofaction. THANK YOU!

Serving our Seniors

“Stand up in the presence of the aged, show respect for the elderly and revere your God.”

Leviticus 19:32

SOS is now ready to serve our seniors! How can you request assistance? There are several ways in which someone can notify SOS of help that is needed: fill out the golden postcard and insert it into our wooden box on the shelf in the Centre; email jgsservingour-seniors@gmail.com; call 410-610-2953 and speak with Raleigh Weckbaugh.

How can you help SOS help others? Volunteer; donate to Jesus the Good Shepherd and put “Serving Our Seniors” in the memo line; notify us when you are aware of someone over 55 in our parish who could use some assistance.

Mark your calendars! JGS and SOS, in conjunction with the ADW and their Dept. of Special Needs, will host a one-day retreat on March 28, with speaker, retired judge and author Barbara Lee. The topic of her book “God Isn’t Finished with Me Yet,” addresses the spiritual aspects of aging, and will be the focus of this workshop. It will include her speaking; breaking into small discussion groups; and a light lunch. Since ADW has designated our church as their “pilot parish” in the area of senior ministry, they wanted us to host this event!
