Greeting

Penitential Rite and Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, [All strike their breast three times] through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-

Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Deuteronomy
26:4-10

Moses spoke to the people, saying:
“The priest shall receive the basket from you and shall set it in front of the altar of the LORD, your God.
Then you shall declare before the Lord, your God,
‘My father was a wandering Aramean who went down to Egypt with a small household and lived there as an alien.

But there he became a nation great, strong, and numerous.
When the Egyptians maltreated and oppressed us, imposing hard labor upon us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and he heard our cry and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression.
He brought us out of Egypt with his strong hand and outstretched arm, with terrifying power, with signs and wonders;

and bringing us into this country, he gave us this land flowing with milk and honey.
Therefore, I have now brought you the firstfruits of the products of the soil which you, O LORD, have given me.’
And having set them before the LORD, your God, you shall bow down in his presence.”

Second Reading: Romans 10:8-13

What does Scripture say?
*The word is near you,
in your mouth and in your heart*
—that is, the word of faith that we preach—,
for, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.
For one believes with the heart and so is justified,

and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.
For the Scripture says,
No one who believes in him will be put to shame.
For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, enriching all who call upon him.
For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Gospel: Luke 4:1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil.
He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry.
The devil said to him,
“If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread.”
Jesus answered him,
“It is written, One does not live on bread alone.”
Then he took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a single instant.
The devil said to him,
“I shall give to you all this power and glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I may give it to whomever I wish.
All this will be yours, if you worship me.”
Jesus said to him in reply,
“It is written

You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve.”
Then he led him to Jerusalem, made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him,
“If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written:
He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you,
and:
With their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone.”
Jesus said to him in reply,
“It also says,
You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test.”
When the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from him for a time.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I wish all a Blessed First Sunday and full week of Lent.

Unfortunately, the beginning of our Lent is overshadowed by the war in Ukraine. On behalf of our community, I was in touch last week with the pastor of Holy Family Ukrainian Rite Catholic Church in northeast Washington, just up the street from the Basilica. I expressed our prayerful support and our oneness with the Ukrainian community both there and overseas as we all implore God for an end to the war. The pastor was very appreciative and expressed his gratitude to all in our community who remember our Catholic brothers and sisters at this time.

Often, there arise questions about Catholics of different “rites.” A very simple answer is that those of the different rites of the Catholic Church are as Catholic as we “Latin Rite” Catholics are. Because of their cultural and religious traditions, about seventeen other rites of the Catholic Church exist alongside of us. They are in full communion with Rome and recognize the Pope as their spiritual head.

On a happier note, last weekend we were happy to welcome two seminarians from the Archdiocese of Washington. They each shared their faith journey. Seminarian and priestly formation is just one of the many ministries supported by your gift to the Annual Appeal. Without the Appeal, the archdiocese would not be able to do as much as it currently does for our seminarians preparing to be priests some day to serve the Archdiocese of Washington.

If you haven't done so, kindly make a pledge to the Annual Appeal. We are hoping for 100% participation. Every gift, large or small, is important. Envelopes for this purpose were attached to last week's bulletin or you may simply go via smartphone and other electronic devices and visit adw.org and then go to the Annual Appeal. There is a drop-down menu of parishes and you go to Jesus the Good Shepherd. The rest is self-explanatory. Thank you for your kind support of the Annual Appeal!

✠ We hear in our Gospel on this first Sunday of Lent that Jesus is taken to the desert, where he will be tempted. In our own lives, temptations do and can “come out to play.” Indulgence, abundance, security and power are just a few of these temptations. During this Lent, we need to see that temptations are fragile and what should really be our focus is not ourselves but caring and providing for those in need, while attending to our life-giving relationships with God and with others.

Loving God, you accompany us in the deserts we experience in our lives. May we find refreshment and restoration in your love.

May God bless all of us with abundant graces during this Lent. God bless you!

Father Mike

A Hidden Life: A martyr in the making, Franz Jägerstätter

Join us in the Centre on Sunday March 13 at 9:20am-10:20am for this Lenten Reflection on A Hidden Life. A Hidden Life is available on Apple TV ($3.99), Amazon Prime ($3.99), Google Play ($3.99), or purchase for 19.99. A Hidden Life may be viewed before or after the discussion.

JGS parishioner, Dr. David Walsh, professor of politics at The Catholic University of America, will lead the discussion.

Learn about Terence Malick's breathtaking movie, A Hidden Life, and then discuss its importance and relevance to evangelization in our modern times! In, A Hidden Life, we hear about blessed Franz Jägerstätter, the solitary Austrian who refused to serve in the Nazi Army, and how his bravery to take a stand gives witness to our call as missionary disciples.

In Dr. Walsh's own words from his published article on the movie, "thanks to the arrival of A Hidden Life, I have gained a perspective on an extraordinary witness who lived far from the fame and notoriety by which we usually judge what matters."

Surge of the Heart A Lenten Mission

Wednesday-Thursday
March 16th and 17th
Begins with Hospitality at

40 CANS FOR LENT

INCLUDING ARCHDIOCESAN-WIDE FOOD DRIVE WEEKEND, MARCH 26/27

The Archdiocese of Washington, is having a diocesan wide food drive. In support of that food drive we are asking parishioners to donate one non-perishable food item for each day of Lent—40 Cans for Lent.

Suggested items: canned fruits/vegetables, cereal, peanut butter and jelly, soup, canned meat/fish, condiments, starches. Please bring your donation to the special tables marked for such in the Centre.

All food will donated will benefit the Ladies of Charity Food Pantry in North Beach, Maryland. All food donated by March 26 and 27th will be counted and weighed and added to the Archdiocesan Food Drive calculation.

NEW MINISTRY

COVENANT SUNDAY TEAM

— Hello JGS Parishioners! This is an excellent opportunity for families that may be new to the parish or those that wish to get to know others in the parish. You all know how much we enjoy our annual Covenant Sunday? To keep this annual tradition going, we need some volunteer families to organize the event in this truly giving ministry. We would like to have a couple of families who could take over the planning and organizing of the event. Other ministries and volunteers do the work that make the day run successfully. We will provide all the information you will need to make it happen. This is a great opportunity for families to work together as a team and get to know others in the parish! Please contact Katie in the church office for more information.

CHRISTMAS IN APRIL "NEIGHBORS HELPING NEIGHBORS" –

For the past 25 years the Covenant Community of Jesus the Good Shepherd has partnered with Christmas in April in making needed repairs to homes of lower income Calvert County homeowners (seniors on fixed income, families with children, disabled, and veterans), assuring they live independently in warm, secure, dry, and safe homes. Skilled and unskilled volunteers are welcomed to join in the repairs of our assigned house. For further information on helping the last week of April contact Randy Kozik at 301-520-2537 (cell) or email at rkozik@comcast.net or Glenn Phelps at Gphelps.ciacc@gmail.com.

Filling the Basket This Lent

Lent calls us into deeper everyday stewardship because it beautifully creates opportunities to be mindful of the call of Christ in even the most mundane moments of our day.

Many of us will participate in the time-honored tradition of doing penance, or "giving something up" for Lent. When we do this, we are mimicking the Israelites who filled their baskets with the first fruits of their harvest, "and having set them before the Lord, your God, (bowing) down in his presence" (Deuteronomy 26:10).

What are we going to bring before the Lord this Lent? What are our first fruits?

If you're struggling with ideas for how to "fill your basket," it can help to come at the problem from the opposite side. Take a look at the six characteristics of Everyday Stewardship and think about the moments in your day when you fail to fulfill the virtues to which they call you.

What is keeping you from being mindful of the call of Christ throughout your day? I promise you, if you listen, you'll hear it more than once. What is keeping you from being prayerful? When you have set your first fruits before the Lord, what keeps you from bowing down in His presence to finish the offering?

What keeps you from being grateful — especially of the small things that so often go unnoticed?

What keeps you from being gracious, from leaving people smiling as they walk away?

What keeps you from being committed and accountable? Where do your excuses come from and what makes you indulge them?

NEW TO PARISH? – Welcome to our Catholic Community! We encourage you to register with us as soon as possible. To register go to ccjgs.org/im-new. The best way to connect with us is through Flocknote. From your phone: Text: 84576 Keyword: ccjgs From your computer: <https://app.flocknote.com/ccjgs>. To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offering and involvement.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION - Parents seeking baptism are encouraged to call the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org. We invite all new (and expecting!) parents to a baptism retreat to be held 3 times per year.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.

Mission Statement: “We, the Roman Catholic Parish of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, have chosen to serve the Lord by evangelizing through the virtues of Hospitality, Spirituality and Stewardship.” 10
