April 18, 2021 Third Sunday of Easter

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service.

We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this Jesus' name. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people: “The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate’s presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away.”

1. When I call, answer me, O my just God, you who relieve me when I am in distress; have pity on me, and hear my prayer!

3. O LORD, let the light of your countenance shine upon us!
You put gladness into my heart.

2. Know that the LORD does wonders for his faithful one; the LORD will hear me when I call upon him.

4. As soon as I lie down, I fall peacefully asleep, for you alone, O LORD, bring security to my dwelling

Second Reading: 1 John 2:1-5a

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, “I know him,” but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

Gospel: Luke 24: 35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

An Act of Spiritual Communion by St. Alphonsus Liguori

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Dear Brothers and Sisters,

A blessed Easter Season to you!

Because of advance printing deadlines, this is the first time I am able to write to you since Easter Sunday, April 4th. During this Easter Season, we are reminded of the new life God has given to us. Through the death and resurrection of his Son, we have overcome sin, opening the path to eternal life for us. On that path, we are called to live a life of virtue, a life that reflects the Gospel to all whom we seek and encounter.

What a wonderful beginning of the Easter Season we have had at Jesus the Good Shepherd. As the African proverb says, "It takes a village to raise a child." Well, I like to say, "It takes a community to put on Easter!" The Holy Week and Easter decorations, music, liturgies, live-streaming, taped Easter Mass, Masses at the Pavilion with the liturgical and parking logistics and Radio FM transmission would NOT have happened without the direct involvement of so many parishioners supporting our staff. They are too many to name but God who sees all the good we all do, knows who YOU are and will reward you if not in this life but in the life to come. THANK YOU. I am so grateful to each and to every one of you.

Let us pray. Faithful Lord, your Risen Son fulfills our deepest longings and greatest hopes. As we come to know you better through him, show us all the ways in which you fulfill your promises to your people. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Father Mike

He is Risen—Alleluia—the Easter Season continues for 50 days. Please join us for the Good News of the Gospel.

HELP NEEDED FOR THE 10:45 A.M. PAVILION MASS: During the pandemic, many in our community are taking advantage of the outdoor/social-distanced Mass at the Pavilion for the 10:45 a.m. Mass. We are in need of 2 additional volunteers every Sunday to assist with simple set-up and especially parking. Directions and guidance will be provided. We need extra help in order for this Mass to continue through the summer, provided the weather is good [in inclement weather, of course, the Mass will have to be moved into the church]. If you attend the 10:45 a.m. Mass on a regular basis, your "giving back" to make this Mass continue would be gratefully appreciated. Please contact the parish office [secretary@ccjgs.org] and kindly leave your contact information. Thank you!

All donations will be acknowledged in our bulletin. The last day for donations is Sunday April 25th.

NEW PROJECTION SCREEN IN CENTRE: A few weeks ago, a new state-of-the-art projection screen was installed in the Centre. This has allowed better clarity for the projection of our live-streamed Masses from the church. This expense was made possible through the generosity of parishioners. Our technology needs at Jesus the Good Shepherd continue to increase. We are now looking at a quality projector on a proper mounting device in order to project not only live-stream Masses but also for the use of power-point presentations, etc. If you would like to make a donation, large or small, for this purpose, please keep this in mind in your future offertory donations. Thank you so much for your consideration of this request.

CHRISTMAS IN APRIL "NEIGHBORS HELPING NEIGHBORS" – For the past 27 years Christmas in April Calvert County has engaged church communities in making needed repairs to homes of low-income Calvert County homeowners, assuring they can live in warmth, safety and independence. Although interior and exterior painting, roof repairs, insulating homes, making bathrooms accessible and repairing porches and decks are accomplished, the real goal is revitalizing the lives and hope of less fortunate homeowners. All work will be done in masks with social distancing. For further information on helping on Saturday, April 24th, contact Randy Kozik at 301-520-2537 (cell) or email at rkozik@comcast.net or Glenn Phelps at Gphelps.ciacc@gmail.com

SUPPORT THE CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL (APRIL 24-25) As the pandemic continues across the world, the Catholic Home Missions Appeal has remained faithful in providing vital assistance to 87 dioceses and eparchies across the United States, its territories, and several former territories in the Pacific. Without these funds, these dioceses and eparchies would not be able to minister to their parishioners in all the ways that are needed. Please prayerfully consider contributing to this year's Catholic Home Missions Appeal on April 24-25. Amid so many great needs, we are especially grateful for your support. Make your check or money order payable to "Catholic Home Missions Appeal" and place it in one of the baskets in the vestibule. If you prefer to mail your check, please mail to: Catholic Home Missions, Office of National Collections, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, P. O. Box 96278, Washington DC 20090-6278.

"THEY WILL KNOW WE ARE CHRISTIANS BY OUR LOVE."

Over the past year, Covid has offered some unique challenges and opportunities for the Church. One aspect of the Church's ministry that has grown considerably is our digital presence. Our JGS staff has worked hard to keep live masses available and our social media platforms updated. We are grateful for the opportunity to reach so many through the digital world.

As a staff at JGS, we have taken a digital pledge to continue serving the community through these venues, but have taken the pledge a step further to include all of our personal social media accounts as well. Why? We recognize that our identity with Christ is reflected in every aspect of our lives whether on-line or in person, Bringing Christ to others in everything we do, wherever we are, is the challenge we have set before us in 2021. The early Christians did this well. People marveled at their capacity to love. They brought the love of Christ everywhere, in everything they did. What a great reminder and challenge, as we live out our pledge as a community to Love Thy Neighbor.

In 2021, we invite all of our community members to join us in the digital pledge. Together, we will spread the love, joy, peace and hope of Christ both in person and in the digital world. We will be a light for others through our words and actions, revealing who we are and "whose we are". And "they will know we are Christians by our Love".

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When the greeting "Peace be with you" is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate very deep within, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds so that we can more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God's compassionate, loving, tender, and untiring embrace constantly present and offered to people throughout history. Without the anchor of truth that only God can provide, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God's offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God's gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim the Good News. ©LPI

UPDATE ON THE 2021 ANNUAL APPEAL. We show our love of God by our love of neighbor. The Annual Appeal goes to support many charitable and ministerial needs of our neighbors throughout the Archdiocese of Washington. Every year, every parish is assigned a goal by the Archdiocese of Washington. As of this writing, we have achieved 74% of our goal. This is very good news and we thank all those who have made a pledge or outright donation. But we need every household to participate in order to make our goal. We are still about $26,000 short of our goal. We hope to reach our goal by the end of May. During Lent, we had the priest who is the Catholic Chaplain at the Catholic Student Center at the University of Maryland, College Park celebrate a weekend Mass with us. The Archdiocese has two full time priests assigned at the UMD to minister to the thousands of young adult Catholics there. They do a fantastic job! The Catholic Student Center is supported by the Annual Appeal. Just prior to Easter, we received a beautiful letter from one of the young adults at the UMD. It was in response to a personal donation which Fr. Mike made to support Catholic ministry at the UMD:

*Dear Fr. King,
My name is Miles Bigley. I am a junior student from the Catholic Student Center and UMD.
I am writing simply to say thank you for your generous gift to our Annual Appeal which supports programs here at the Catholic Student Center. Even in our virtual world right now, we are able to keep our ministry alive and thriving, keeping our current students engaged as well as reaching out to new students. We also want to let you know that we are praying for you and your intentions here. If you have a special request, please reach out to us, and we can add that to our list of intentions. Email catholicterps@catholicterps.org or call 301-864-6223 and leave a message. Thanks again and please continue to pray for us.*

*Have a blessed Lent.
Miles Bigley*

Thank you for your kind support of the 2021 Annual Appeal. Learn more about the Annual Appeal at appeal.adw.org. To give now, use the QR code or go to give.adw.org. #ADWAPPEAL.

COVID-19 UPDATE

Because we love our neighbor, JGS has overflow seating in the Centre.

Even though our max capacity is 500, given the shape of the venue, and the pews, we could not safely increase our capacity beyond 125 while keeping 6-ft distances.

Overflow seating is available in the Centre. We have a large screen with sound. We thank those parishioners who use overflow.

If current conditions concern you, please remember that you can participate in Mass by listening on your car radio at both 8:00am and 10:45am on Sunday mornings and receive Holy Communion outside.

Contact Laura Cleary at 410-257-3810 (secretary@ccjgs.org) for Mass Cards/ Intentions; Sponsor Certificates (for Sacraments) or to place bulletin announcements. Deadline for bulletin items is Thursday at noon, 10 days before the weekend you want your article to appear. Thank you!
