Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 43:16-21

Thus says the LORD,
 who opens a way in the sea
 and a path in the mighty waters,
 who leads out chariots and horsemen,
 a powerful army,
 till they lie prostrate together, never to rise,
 snuffed out and quenched like a wick.
 Remember not the events of the past,
 the things of long ago consider not;
 see, I am doing something new!
 Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?

In the desert I make a way,
 in the wasteland, rivers.
 Wild beasts honor me,
 jackals and ostriches,
 for I put water in the desert
 and rivers in the wasteland
 for my chosen people to drink,
 the people whom I formed for myself,
 that they might announce my praise.

The Word of the Lord
R: Thanks be to God

Responsorial: Psalm 126

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Second Reading: Philippians 3:8-14

Brothers and sisters:
I consider everything as a loss
because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord.
For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things
and I consider them so much rubbish,
that I may gain Christ and be found in him,
not having any righteousness of my own based on the law
but that which comes through faith in Christ,
the righteousness from God,
depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection
and the sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death,

if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

It is not that I have already taken hold of it
or have already attained perfect maturity,
but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus.
Brothers and sisters, I for my part
do not consider myself to have taken possession.
Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind
but straining forward to what lies ahead,
I continue my pursuit toward the goal,
the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord
R: Thanks be to God

Gospel: John 8:1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.
But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area,
and all the people started coming to him,
and he sat down and taught them.
Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery
and made her stand in the middle.
They said to him,
“Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery.
Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women.
So what do you say?”
They said this to test him,
so that they could have some charge to bring against him.
Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger.

But when they continued asking him,
he straightened up and said to them,
“Let the one among you who is without sin
be the first to throw a stone at her.”
Again he bent down and wrote on the ground.
And in response, they went away one by one,
beginning with the elders.
So he was left alone with the woman before him.
Then Jesus straightened up and said to her,
“Woman, where are they?
Has no one condemned you?”
She replied, “No one, sir.”
Then Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you.
Go, and from now on do not sin any more.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

BE NOT AFRAID

Bob Dufford, SJ

1. You shall cross the barren desert,
but you shall not die of thirst.
You shall wander far in safety
though you do not know the way.
You shall speak your words in foreign lands
and all will understand.
You shall see the face of God and live.

2. If you pass through raging waters in the sea,
you shall not drown.
If you walk amid the burning flames,
you shall not be harmed.
If you stand before the pow'r of hell
and death is at your side,
know that I am with you through it all.

3. Blessed are your poor,
for the kingdom shall be theirs.
Blest are you that weep and mourn,
for one day you shall laugh.
And if wicked tongues insult and hate
you
all because of me,
blessed, blessed are you!

Be not a-fraid. I go be-fore you al-ways. Come fol-low

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Next weekend, we begin Holy Week – the holiest week of the Year. I hope that you clear your calendar and appreciate the beauty of the Holy Week liturgies. The liturgies draw us closer to Christ and enable us to be His presence in our fragile world. Please make every effort and plan to be present for our beautiful Holy Week celebrations at Jesus the Good Shepherd.

I am sure all of us have gotten distracted at some point. We have a lot on our minds and unintentionally forgot to do or to say something. It is not often we see Jesus in the Gospel distracted. It's one of the best qualities about him: he seems very attentive to the people around him all the time.

But here he is in today's Gospel, drawing in the dirt of all things, seemingly surprised when near him, a woman has not been stoned or condemned. We do not know what Jesus wrote on the ground, what so absorbed his attention that he didn't notice the crowd leave.

And it wasn't just "any" crowd: they had stones ready to be thrown. His distraction diffuses the tension, though. He doesn't give the sin attention. By so doing, he creates "space" for mercy.

Let us pray. Loving God, your Son, Jesus, brought mercy to all kinds of situations. He showed us how to act justly and walk humbly. May we follow his example and create space for mercy and justice in all that we do. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

May God's blessings be upon you this Fifth Week of Lent!

Father Mike

PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION—Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

The most needed baby items are actually monetary gift cards – Walmart, grocery store, etc. They have all of the baby clothes they can store at the moment. Pampers – all sizes - and wipes are also needed. Some of the babies are too sensitive to the store brands of these items so keep that in mind when purchasing. Monetary gifts will help to offset the rising costs of such things as the electric bill.

They repurpose laptops donated from their local school district (Loudon county). One laptop contains 'Medical Internet In A Box' MIIAB, the medical wikipedia; and another has educational programs. These systems are helpful to remote areas that do not have access to the internet. Please keep us in your prayers as we search a path forward to deliver these laptops to our sister parish. We appreciate any help financially to offset the shipping cost.

NEW TO PARISH? – Welcome to our Catholic Community! We encourage you to register with us as soon as possible. To register go to ccjgs.org/im-new. The best way to connect with us is through Flocknote. From your phone: Text: 84576 Keyword: ccjgs From your computer: <https://app.flocknote.com/ccjgs>. To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offering and involvement.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION - Parents seeking baptism are encouraged to call the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org. We invite all new (and expecting!) parents to a baptism retreat to be held 3 times per year.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.

Mission Statement: “We, the Roman Catholic Parish of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, have chosen to serve the Lord by evangelizing through the virtues of Hospitality, Spirituality and Stewardship.” 10
