Worship Aid and Bulletin

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

The LORD said to Elijah:
"You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you."

Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat,
as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen;
he was following the twelfth.
Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him.
Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said,
"Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye,"

and I will follow you.”
 Elijah answered, “Go back!
 Have I done anything to you?”
 Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them;

he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh,
 and gave it to his people to eat.
 Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

Second Reading: Galatians 5:1-18

Brothers and sisters:
 For freedom Christ set us free;
 so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters.
 But do not use this freedom
 as an opportunity for the flesh;
 rather, serve one another through love.
 For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement,
 namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
 But if you go on biting and devouring one another,
 beware that you are not consumed by one another.

I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh.
 For the flesh has desires against the Spirit,
 and the Spirit against the flesh;
 these are opposed to each other,
 so that you may not do what you want.
 But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

Gospel: Lk 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled,
 he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem,
 and he sent messengers ahead of him.
 On the way they entered a Samaritan village
 to prepare for his reception there,
 but they would not welcome him
 because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem.
 When the disciples James and John saw this they asked,
 “Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven

to consume them?”
 Jesus turned and rebuked them,
 and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him,
 “I will follow you wherever you go.”
 Jesus answered him,
 “Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests,
 but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head.”

And to another he said, “Follow me.”
 But he replied, “Lord, let me go first and bury my father.”

But he answered him, “Let the dead bury their dead.
 But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”
 And another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home.”
 To him Jesus said, “No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I hope the summer so far finds you well and able to enjoy some personal time to rejuvenate. Summertime is often associated with recreation. "Recreation" is a combination of "re" + "creation." It is important to take some personal time so that we can feel in a sense "re-created" to allow us to "re-charge" and to deal with the many obligations that we all have.

As I write this, I just returned after being away seven days. To be honest, it felt like seven years! Other than an occasional night away and taking my annual retreat in 2021, it was the first time since the pandemic that I have been away from the parish since July, 2019. It felt good to slow down, disconnect more from social media, re-connect more with personal prayer and just simply relax. I am now back. I am grateful to God for this time away. I hope this summer affords you some time to also get away and get "re-created."

As we are human, today's Gospel reminds how truly human the first disciples were. They know that Jesus is different. They've seen him working miracles. So, of course, when something doesn't go their way, they ask about calling down "fire from heaven."

Who among us hasn't at least occasionally considered a "scorched-earth" policy when things don't go OUR way??? A cooler, more divine head prevails – and that is Jesus. Jesus and the disciples simply move along. Grudges and vengeance are tempting, but they are not very satisfying – or life-giving. They leave such behind. Life is too short! Jesus calls us to move forward and not to look back. Let us keep journeying to places that bring us peace and welcome.

Let us pray. Lord Jesus, you are quick to forgive where we would rather hold a grudge. Grant us mercy, that we may extend it to others as you so generously extend it to us. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Blessings and peace upon you this summer!

Father Mike

NEW TO PARISH? – Welcome to our Catholic Community! We encourage you to register with us as soon as possible. To register go to ccjgs.org/im-new. The best way to connect with us is through Flocknote. From your phone: Text: 84576 Keyword: ccjgs From your computer: <https://app.flocknote.com/ccjgs>. To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offertory and involvement.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION - Parents seeking baptism are encouraged to call the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org. We invite all new (and expecting!) parents to a baptism retreat to be held 3 times per year.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANointing OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.

Mission Statement: “We, the Roman Catholic Parish of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, have chosen to serve the Lord by evangelizing through the virtues of Hospitality, Spirituality and Stewardship.” 10
