Worship Aid for June 27, 2021 The Thirteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service.

We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Opening Prayer

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

The Word of the Lord. R: Thanks be to God

Responsorial: Psalm 30: 2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

Text © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL. All rights reserved. Used with permission.
Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also.

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

The Word of the Lord. R: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

Gospel: Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him. There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?" But his disciples said to Jesus, "You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord.      R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Mon—8 a.m. Eucharistic Service
 Tues-Sat—8 a.m.

JGS offers Sunday Mass via livestream, either on our Facebook Page or on our Youtube page. Don't miss out. Like us on Facebook or join our YouTube Channel.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As many know by now, this weekend marks our return to “normal” and the removal of the general dispensation not to attend Mass due to the pandemic. The last several weekends I have noticed the return of more and more parishioners to Mass. This is wonderful! Coming to Mass is a reminder that we are a sacramental people – the Lord calls us together – to be the Church he wants us to be!

Regardless, there are specific persons for whom the dispensation may still be applicable [such the homebound and seriously ill]:

1. You are sick or you have a health condition that would be significantly compromised if you were to contract a communicable illness.
2. You are experiencing flu-like symptoms.
3. You have been exposed to someone who has tested positive or you have reason to think you might be asymptomatic of a contagious illness.
4. You care for the sick, homebound or infirm.
5. You are pregnant.
6. You are 65 years of age or older [per the CDC’s recommendation of high-risk individuals].
7. You cannot attend Mass through no fault of your own [e.g., you are sick, your ride did not show up, the church and centre were at capacity a given weekend Mass].
8. You have significant fear or anxiety of becoming ill by being at Mass.

Like you, I am very happy that, with rare exceptions, all parish ministries and gatherings are returning to normal this summer. Certainly, by Labor Day weekend, parish life will really be on the upswing again! We cannot live without the Eucharist and the Church is not fully alive without its people. We cannot wait to welcome you back to Jesus the Good Shepherd! God bless you!

Father Mike

POSITION OPEN, ADULT FAITH FORMATION COORDINATOR: Jesus the Good Shepherd is seeking a part-time coordinator for Adult Faith Formation. We are looking for someone who is excited about their Catholic Faith and has a passion for Adult Faith Formation. Applicant must be a practicing Catholic in good standing. A Bachelor's degree in Theology or Religious Education or similar field is preferred. To apply, kindly send resume and cover letter to: Mrs. Laura Cleary, Administrative Assistant, Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, 1601 W. Mount Harmony Road, Owings, Maryland 20736 or email secretary@ccjgs.org.

BAPTISMAL FONT UNDER REPAIR: It was recently discovered that our baptismal font in the church vestibule suffered some mechanical damage during the pandemic due to non-use. Estimates for repairs are underway. It is hoped to get the baptismal font up and running by the end of this summer.

JGS RETURNS TO NORMALCY: Thanks be to God that signs of our parish life prior to the pandemic are returning to Jesus the Good Shepherd. One area still under consideration is the resumption of socials in our Centre, especially funeral receptions. This is on "the list" to be addressed this summer.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY TO ALL FATHERS: Thank you to everyone who is participating and praying with us for the Father's Day Novena. The Masses will be celebrated for all fathers enrolled in the 9 day Novena from June 22—July 1.

CONGRATULATIONS, ALL FATHERS OF OUR COMMUNITY: Last weekend at all the Masses, it was a pleasure to have blessed all the fathers of our community on Father's Day! As a token of our appreciation, a small prayer booklet composed by Pope Francis to all fathers was given out after the Masses. If you did not receive one or know a father who would like one, there are still some extras in the vestibule. Kindly help yourself. Thank you!

THIS WEEK, WE WILL TAKE UP THE PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION, which unites us and Catholics around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need. Please be generous. For more information, visit <http://www.peterspence.va/en.html>.

MAJOR REPAIR UNDERWAY: Inside our church, behind the altar/sanctuary area, are located the music ministry room, the church sacristy, a rest room and utility closet. Over the last year or so, the floor in the entire space has become unsafe due to sinking. This has created floor and cabinet instability. After inspection by archdiocesan and engineering experts, the causes that have been determined are poorly compacting soils over the years under the floor as well as poorly poured concrete when this area of the church was first constructed many years ago.

As a result, the entire area is closed until further notice. The repair will require "jack-hammering" the concrete floor, removal of soils, replacement with proper soils, new concrete, removal and replacement of all plumbing, walls, and flooring. This is a major project which will last the majority of the summer months at least. This repair cannot be covered by insurance [Catholic Mutual]. It will cost the parish about $90,000 which will almost eliminate all of our savings for repairs.

The repair company will be working closely with us to accommodate the on-going use of the church. The church will not be affected. All scheduled events for the use of the church will take place as usual, including weddings and funerals. Thank you for your cooperation during this process!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Do not be afraid, just have faith." God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in his image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace offered in love. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. Both love and faith can lead us to hope that no matter what we encounter, God will continue to sustain us in being. He will not allow us to perish. God can profoundly change how we see Him, ourselves, and one another. God desires that we turn toward Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. We are asked to arise and walk proudly with this life-giving faith. Reach out and share this faith with someone this week so that they too can receive God's life changing embrace and heed His call to wholeness. There are many in our world wandering around aimlessly without hope. Bring it to them. ©LPI
