Worship Aid and Bulletin

Worship Aid for June 6, 2021 The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service.

We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this Jesus' name. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do."

Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

The Word of the Lord.
R: Thanks be to God

Responsorial: Psalm 116:12-13, 15-16, 17-18

R. I will take the cup of sal-va-tion, and call on the name of the Lord.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Brothers and sisters:

When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God.

For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

The Word of the Lord

R: Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover. While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
 and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
 and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory
 to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

An Act of Spiritual Communion by St. Alphonsus Liguori

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On this first weekend of June, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. How blessed we are as Catholics to have the Holy Eucharist. I recently spoke with a Baptist who commented how she wishes her church had our sacraments, especially the Eucharist. As Jesus gathered for his last meal with his disciples, he led them in the traditional Jewish prayers. He thanked God for creation and for leading the Israelites out of Egypt and into a homeland. Then, with a few simple words, Jesus dramatically changed the meaning of the meal. From that moment on whenever Jesus' followers gathered for a ritual meal, they were to thank God for the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. Centuries later, here we are today! We continue to break bread in His name. Alleluia!

Let us pray. Lord Jesus, when we break bread together and drink from the cup of salvation, you are present within and among us. Through the gifts we receive from you, make us holy disciples who will go forth to be gifts to others. Nourish us until the day we enter the fullness of your kingdom where you live and reign with God, the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen!

I wish you and your loved ones a blessed June!

Father Mike

JGS Prayer Garden

Ministry Coordinator Dave LaRosa larosa64@comcast.net

What does this ministry do? This Ministry cares for the plants, shrubs and trees within our beautiful Prayer Garden located beside our church.

What do love /enjoy most about this ministry? It gives me the opportunity to spend time in a natural setting that is also one that is spiritual. This unique combination allows mundane or more labor intensive tasks such as weeding and spreading mulch and turns them into more than just a job that needs to be done. They are, in a sense, an active form of prayer that is giving glory to God and supports the prayer life of others.

The ministry is great for anyone who wants to help support a beautiful place where any of our parishioners can go and spend time with the Lord and who doesn't mind getting their hands a little dirty.

When are volunteer opportunities available? There are opportunities to volunteer from March through December. The busiest times are in the April - May and November - December time period. The work is usually done on Saturdays but support can also be provided during the week.

How can people get involved? Anyone interested in supporting the Prayer Garden can reach out to me directly by email at larosa64@comcast.net.

Any next steps? For anyone who is interested, I will coordinate with you and provide support to any volunteers on the tasks that need to be done based upon when they are available to provide their support.

Anything else you want members to know? If you have your own gardening tools please bring them along when you come to help out.

- CHURCH SIGNS –LITTLE SAYINGS TO HELP YOU ON YOUR WAY •

Christianity doesn't guarantee you a smooth flight,
But it does provide a safe landing!

CLARIFICATION ON CREMATION AND BURIAL IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH: The Catholic Church as early as 1963 has permitted the option of cremation. Our beautiful cemetery on our grounds allows the burial of a loved one's ashes either in a niche in our Columbarium built for this purpose or in the ground. This is in full compliance with the teaching of the Church. What is not within compliance with the Church, however, is the "scattering of ashes" of a deceased loved one in such places as bodies of water, parks and backyards. After death, the Church reverences the remains of the human body so the remains must be buried in anticipation of the Final Resurrection when the remains of all will rise from the dead for the Final Judgement. As such, a funeral Mass can only occur if the cremated remains of a loved one are properly buried in a cemetery. In planning for one's funeral or for a loved one's funeral, one should, therefore, be suspect of a growing number of offers from the secular funeral industry about "dividing up" the ashes of a loved one and placing them in smaller urns and even in jewelry for distribution to relatives and friends. Such a practice is not allowed by the Catholic Church. If such a practice is done, a Funeral Mass may not take place. Thank you for your understanding in these matters.

Contact Laura Cleary at 410-257-3810 (secretary@ccjgs.org) for Mass Cards/ Intentions; Sponsor Certificates (for Sacraments) or to place bulletin announcements. Deadline for bulletin items is Thursday at noon, 10 days before the weekend you want your article to appear. Thank you!
