August 14, 2022 The Twentieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10

"Jeremiah ought to be put to death;
he is demoralizing the soldiers who are left in this city,
and all the people, by speaking such things to them;

In those days, the princes said to the king:

he is not interested in the welfare of our people, but in their ruin."
 King Zedekiah answered: "He is in your power"; for the king could do nothing with them.
 And so they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Prince Malchiah, which was in the quarters of the guard, letting him down with ropes.
 There was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud.

Ebed-melech, a court official, went there from the palace and said to him:

"My lord king, these men have been at fault in all they have done to the prophet Jeremiah, casting him into the cistern. He will die of famine on the spot, for there is no more food in the city." Then the king ordered Ebed-melech the Cushite to take three men along with him, and draw the prophet Jeremiah out of the cistern before he should die.

PSALM 63: MY SOUL IS THIRSTING/AS MORNING BREAKS
 Steve Angrisano

My soul is thirst - ing for you, O Lord, thirst - *As morn - ing breaks I ___ look to you; be
 - ing for you, my God. My soul is thirst - my _ strength this day. As morn - ing breaks
 - ing for you, O Lord, thirst - ing for you, my God,
 I ___ look to you; be my _ strength this day,
 thirst - ing for you, my God.
 be my _ strength this day.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:1-4
 Brothers and sisters:
 Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith. For the sake of the joy that lay before him he endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God.

 Consider how he endured such opposition from sinners, in order that you may not grow weary and lose heart. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood.

Gospel: Luke 12:49-53

Jesus said to his disciples:
 "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!
 There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished!
 Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.
 From now on a household of five will be divided,

three against two and two against three; a father will be divided against his son and a son against his father, a mother against her daughter and a daughter against her mother, a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Wow! We find ourselves this weekend already half-way through August! Where does time go? For students of all ages, this means preparations are now underway for returning to school. For some of our young adults, this means going off to college – many in our community for the first time. Our prayers and best wishes are with you!

As fall approaches, we all need to develop a new “SENSE OF BELONGING” to the active practice of our Catholic faith – simple steps like returning to Mass and being connected to our community, our family of faith here at Jesus the Good Shepherd.

For those who have been away, mainly due to the pandemic, a return to Mass in-person should regain a sense of “belonging.” By our nature, we are social. As disciples of Jesus, we are called together as a community, as a family of faith.

While I understand some may still be wedded to attending Mass “virtually,” it is not the same as attending Mass in person. Have some become too comfortable in attending Sunday Mass “virtually?” For one, when one participates in Mass in the comfort of one’s home, one is separated from one’s “Church” family and one cannot receive the Eucharist. Returning to “in-person” Mass allows one to be with one’s “Church” family and to receive the Eucharist as Jesus intended for his followers.

Coming to Mass highlights Sunday as the “Day of the Lord.” Sadly, many treat Sunday as just another day of the week. But for us as Catholics, Sunday has special meaning. It is truly the Lord’s Day – to worship God, to gather as a community and family of believers, and to receive the Holy Eucharist.

As students across all age groups return to “belonging” to a particular school or university, let’s all return to where we belong as “Catholics” – to Sunday Mass, giving our God the highest form of worship that we can offer Him as Catholics – the Sunday Eucharist. God bless you!

Father Mike

All recently registered new members are encouraged to stop by the New Members table during hospitality, Sunday, August 14, following the 9:45 a.m. Mass. We have a special new members folder waiting for you.

Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary Holy Day of Option—Monday, August 15th—Mass is at 8:00 a.m. in the church. Because it falls on a Monday, it is a holy day of OPTION and not OBLIGATION. Please join us!

HOSPITALITY SUNDAY— ALL ARE WELCOME! —TODAY, Sunday, August 14 after both Sunday morning Masses. Baked goods needed. Please drop off baked goods, either store bought or homemade in the kitchen in the Centre. Help is also needed to clean up after hospitality after the 9:45 a.m. Mass.

Countdown to Covenant Sunday!

Save the date! Our annual, parish-wide Covenant Sunday celebration is slated for Sept. 25th. We can't wait to see you there!

If you are new to JGS, Covenant Sunday may be new to you, so here's the 411. Our whole parish comes together as a family and a community for one Outdoor Mass on Sunday, 9/25 at 11 a.m. During the Mass, we take a moment to renew our commitment to serve the Lord by evangelizing through our parish virtues of hospitality, spirituality, and stewardship.

The Mass is celebrated outside, so plan to BYOC (bring your own chair) or BYOB (bring your own blanket). Mass is followed by a tasty (and free!) lunch, desserts (families with last names from A-L are asked to bring a dessert this year), and a variety of fun activities for the whole family.

We will have hayrides, a bounce house, face painting and crafts, a slip and slide (kids can bring a towel and swimsuit), our famous cake walk, carnival games, cornhole, kickball, a pie eating contest, and more!

How can you help?

Save the date and plan to be there on Sept. 25!

Fill out your scroll! We used to use paper scrolls, but now we ask members of the JGS community to complete a virtual scroll by checking off which parish ministries you will assist with in the upcoming year to help build up the Body of Christ. Stay tuned: Scrolls will be available soon!

Volunteer to help with Covenant Sunday set up or with an activity that day. Contact Liz Grover at wdcgrovers@yahoo.com to see how you can help.

KOC BREAKFAST—the JGS Knights of Columbus are excited to announce the return of their breakfasts. Everyone is invited to a bountiful breakfast buffet after both morning Masses on Sunday, August 21. This magnificent buffet includes a Belgian waffle station and an omelet station. And who doesn't want one of Deacon Paul's blueberry muffins?! See you there! Your good will offering helps offset the cost of the breakfast and helps provide for the many causes the KOC supports.

UPDATE ON CENTRE RESTROOM RENOVATIONS: The fruit of many meetings since last fall, the plan for the renovation of the Centre restrooms is now on display in the Centre. The Centre restrooms have basically not been touched since they were constructed about thirty years ago. They are long overdue for a major upgrade, including new lighting, plumbing, counters, cabinets, flooring and touchless equipment [such as faucets, soap dispensers, hand dryer, commodes, toilets] and more. Plans call for permit requests very soon; following this, a bid will be submitted by a contractor, narrowed down from three contractors. The work is expected to take about two months or less. During the process, alternative restrooms in our facility will be used.

“Handicapped” Parking Spaces: A gentle reminder to all our community that the thirteen nearest parking spaces directly outside and closest to the main church entrance are reserved Saturday and Sundays for those with the official handicapped logo. We also ask that all drivers park “front end” only. To have some park “front end” and also “back in” simultaneously is creating more safety issues of late not only with cars but with the safety of our parishioners. Thank you in advance for your safety in parking and being sensitive to the needs of those who possess “handicapped” vehicle tags.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Thursdays from 8:30 a.m.—8:00 p.m.

Please sign in using the sign-in sheet on the table next to the door.

2022 ANNUAL APPEAL UPDATE: We have exceeded our goal! Thank you for your generosity. If you would like to give to the annual appeal, you may do so by going to <https://adw.org/ways-to-give/annual-appeal-donate/>.
