Worship Aid and Bulletin

Worship Aid for August 15, 2021 The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Opening Prayer

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Revelations 11:19a, 12:1-6a, 10ab

God's temple in heaven was opened,
and the ark of his covenant could be seen in the temple.
A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun,
with the moon under her feet,
and on her head a crown of twelve stars.
She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth.

Then another sign appeared in the sky;
it was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns,
and on its heads were seven diadems.
Its tail swept away a third of the stars in the sky and hurled them down to the earth.
Then the dragon stood before the woman about to give birth,

to devour her child when she gave birth.
 She gave birth to a son, a male child,
 destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod.
 Her child was caught up to God and his throne.
 The woman herself fled into the desert
 where she had a place prepared by God.
 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say:

“Now have salvation and power come,
 and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Anointed One.”

The Word of the Lord. R: Thanks be to God

Responsorial: Psalm 45: 10, 11, 12, 16 Psalm

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:20-27

Brothers and sisters:
 Christ has been raised from the dead,
 the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.
 For since death came through man,
 the resurrection of the dead came also through man.
 For just as in Adam all die,
 so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,
 but each one in proper order:
 Christ the firstfruits;

then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ;
 then comes the end,
 when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father,
 when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power.
 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.
 The last enemy to be destroyed is death,
 for “he subjected everything under his feet.”

The Word of the Lord. R: Thanks be to God

Gospel: Luke 1:39-56

Mary set out
 and traveled to the hill country in haste
 to a town of Judah,
 where she entered the house of Zechariah
 and greeted Elizabeth.
 When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting,
 the infant leaped in her womb,
 and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit,
 cried out in a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women,
 and blessed is the fruit of your womb.
 And how does this happen to me,
 that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
 For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached
 my ears,
 the infant in my womb leaped for joy.
 Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.”
 And Mary said:
 “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord;

my spirit rejoices in God my Savior
 for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
 From this day all generations will call me blessed:
 the Almighty has done great things for me
 and holy is his Name.
 He has mercy on those who fear him
 in every generation.
 He has shown the strength of his arm,
 and has scattered the proud in their conceit.
 He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
 and has lifted up the lowly.
 He has filled the hungry with good things,
 and the rich he has sent away empty.
 He has come to the help of his servant Israel
 for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
 the promise he made to our fathers,
 to Abraham and his children forever.”
 Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The second staff continues the melody with a similar rhythmic pattern. The third staff concludes the phrase with a double bar line.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This Sunday, you might say, is a “double-header!” Not only do we celebrate the Lord’s Day, but also the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven. Today’s feast makes us pause in the midst of our daily concerns and busyness and focus on Mary and the things of heaven.

We hear in today’s Gospel about Mary and her cousin Elizabeth. They lived a good distance from one another and were of different ages, but in the Gospel, they appear to have a very close relationship. The power of the Holy Spirit is a power that brings mysterious knowledge to Elizabeth who knew immediately that Mary was the “mother of her Lord.” Baby John, in the womb of Elizabeth, knew the Lord was near because he leapt in his mother’s womb. The Holy Spirit brings new life, joy and new knowledge.

May we, the Church and members of the Body of Christ here at Jesus the Good Shepherd, be a constant model of Mary’s joy!

Let us pray. O God, source and creator of all that is good, you made us in the divine image. Grant us the grace to recognize your Son, Jesus, in those we meet and in all our work. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Father Mike

News and Events

SUNDAY, AUGUST 15, SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION: We are blessed this calendar year with the Solemnity of the Assumption falling on a Sunday. All Sundays and Holy Days are considered days of “obligation” by the Church – meaning that we have an obligation to attend Mass and receive the Eucharist on these days. So, this year, both are united on the same day. Our weekend Mass schedule will remain the same.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD—WHAT IS IT? Children's Liturgy of the Word is a time during Mass where younger children can experience the Word of God from a child's perspective. It is also a great time for parents to be fully present with their young children and learn to pass on their faith. The children and parent volunteers process to the Chapel where the children read, lead, sing, and give intercessory prayer. They light candles, participate in the pews, break open the gospel, pray together, and have a complete Liturgy of the Word that is more geared towards them! Along with the liturgy they may use some time on an activity focused on the gospel! They may get MORE out of the gospel than their parents do! It is a complete and legitimate liturgy that draws them into a deeper relationship with Christ. This is also a great way for Middle School students to give back and participate as leaders for the younger children. We need more adult volunteers and families to make this work. Will you commit to once every 6 weeks to lead a Children's Liturgy of the Word? Parents of young children are asked to prayerfully think about committing to passing on their faith to their young ones through the Children's Liturgy of the Word.

Please email Katie Evans at music@ccjgs.org or call the church office, 410-257-3810. Thank you!

SUNDAY NURSERY COOP, NOW FORMING: This fall, we would like to resume the SUNDAY NURSERY during the 10:45 a.m. Sunday morning Mass. It will be established as a “co-op” – meaning that if we get enough parents, they will take turns, possibly as little as once a month, to monitor our Sunday Nursery. We are blessed with a beautiful space for our Sunday Nursery.

We invite parents of young children to give some thought to volunteering for our Sunday nursery co-op. Hopefully, we will have the volunteers when we launch our Sunday Nursery this fall. Child protection training is required. Thank you!

YOUR TIME IS VALUABLE! And so is the time of your brothers and sisters in Christ. Out of respect for all, especially our Lord, please make every effort to be seated before Mass begins. This may require getting in the habit of leaving home just a few minutes early. If you are running late, please wait in the vestibule until after the Gospel is read to minimize disruption to the community.

THE COMMITTEE TO RUN COVENANT SUNDAY IS NOW FORMING. You are needed to help make Covenant Sunday a success. What is Covenant Sunday, you ask? The purpose of Covenant Sunday is for all parishioners of Jesus the Good Shepherd Covenant Community to renew their covenant with the Lord. We do this by pledging to give our time, talent and treasure in some way throughout the year. We mark this special day by having one big outdoor Mass at 11:00 a.m. on the last Sunday of September. After Mass, we have a picnic and lots of fun and games for the kids and adults. We are looking for 3 – 5 people to step up and help us organize this event. And we are looking for ALL parishioners to prayerfully consider how you can help us on the big day. Keep a look out for bulletin announcements and flocknotes regarding Covenant Sunday. It really is a fun day and great way to see the Holy Spirit at work.

Registration continues! Registration fee is $150 for one child and $220 per family.

Please consider volunteering! We are in need of volunteer catechists, aides, office assistants, and substitutes. Catechists receive a full tuition break for their children. Aides and office assistants receive a 50% break on tuition. Substitute catechists or aides receive 25% off tuition.

We are seeking volunteers for the following roles:

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Good mothers have a way of bringing their children hope. When we fall and hurt ourselves, our mothers can help us walk the path of healing. There is hope that we will get better and the trust that we have in mom's comforting assurance allows us to move forward. Mothers know instinctively what we need and what we are capable of doing. They can be one of our biggest cheerleaders in life, and even when facing despair, can point the way to a brighter tomorrow. Our Blessed Mother does precisely that for us today. As one closest to our Lord, she cheers us on with the hope of what life will be for all of us. Although given the unique distinction of being raised in both body and soul, she nonetheless points to our true eternal destiny. Achieving this inheritance overrides any disappointment and her intercession and example inspires us to pick ourselves up when we fall. Always a mother filled with grace and hope, she calls us to reaffirm our faith in God and in the gifts we have each been given as we persevere even in the midst of life's challenges and failures. ©LPi

MAJOR CHURCH REPAIRS NEARING COMPLETION: Around Labor Day weekend, it is expected all activity will resume to the area behind the church which has been closed for several months due to repairs.

As a church ages, it is no different from any building or home. This October marks the 24th anniversary of the dedication of our beautiful church. When constructed, there were the usual checks and balances, all building codes were met and all approvals given.

Over time, like any building, there are often "settlement issues" which occur, unrelated to the original construction. If you are a homeowner, you are probably well aware of this situation. In this case, sections of the floor, as previously reported, became unsafe and gradually separated from the walls, around 3" deep in some sections. This was due to deteriorating compacting soils in that area, again which occurred over time, thus affecting the adjoining concrete in these same locations. This, in turn, led to cracks in walls which in turn led to moisture getting into the walls which also resulted in mold/mildew issues.

As of this writing, most of the major repair work has been completed. Thanks be to God that we will be able to resume activity in these areas. Especially to our liturgical ministers, thank you for your patience and understanding as we soon transition back from our temporary storage areas back to our unified space. It will be great once we are up and running!

PETITION
Save Hyde. Save lives.

Stop your tax dollars from going to abortion.

The Hyde Amendment, contained in the federal government's annual appropriations legislation, prohibits federal funding of domestic abortions, except in cases of rape, incest or to save the life of the mother. It is a bipartisan provision that has been part of federal appropriations for 45 years (since 1976) and enjoys overwhelming public support, including strong support from low-income women, and women of color. The Hyde Amendment has served as the model for dozens of other federal policies that prohibit the government from funding abortion in other areas (for example, in foreign assistance programs, trafficking programs, community health programs, or health insurance). In addition to being widely supported by Americans, Hyde and Hyde-related policies save lives and respect the consciences of Americans. However, these policies are now under grave threat of being repealed. Join the USCCB to stop tax dollars from going to abortion. Sign the petition now: www.NoTaxpayerAbortion.com.
