22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." - Lk 14:13-14

Worship Aid and Bulletin

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Opening Prayer

Penitential Rite

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts.
Humble yourself the more, the greater you are,
and you will find favor with God.
What is too sublime for you, seek not,
into things beyond your strength search not.

The mind of a sage appreciates proverbs,
and an attentive ear is the joy of the wise.
Water quenches a flaming fire,
and alms atone for sins.

The Word of the Lord
R: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm:
Psalm 68

R. God, in your good-ness, you have made [a home,] a home for the poor.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

Brothers and sisters:
You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them.

No, you have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and countless angels in festal gathering, and the assembly of the firstborn enrolled in heaven, and God the judge of all, and the spirits of the just made perfect, and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

The Word of the Lord
R: Thanks be to God.

Gospel
Acclamation:

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table.

"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table.

For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment.

Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.

For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Weekend Mass Times

Summer Schedule

live-streamed at 9:45 a.m. on Facebook and YouTube

Mon—8 a.m. Eucharistic Service

Tues-Sat—8 a.m.

JGS offers Sunday Mass via livestream, either on our Facebook Page or on our Youtube page. Don't miss out. Like us on Facebook or join our YouTube Channel.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As summer winds “down,” many things begin to wind “up!” Our Children’s Faith Formation on Sundays is geared up for a successful new school year as is Cardinal Hickey Academy. Last Sunday was our wonderfully attended Knights of Columbus Sunday buffet breakfast; today is the installation of the new K of C officers for the new fraternal year. We are also getting ready for our Ministry Fair Sunday, September 18. That will be followed by our annual celebration of COVENANT SUNDAY on Sept 25th. Kindly mark your calendars and plan on attending these two events in particular. They are a wonderful expression and experience of our community here at Jesus the Good Shepherd!

May I continue to invite back to Mass in person those who have been watching Mass virtually. We all need healing, yet many still are separated from the very source of our strength. It is very hard to feel “necessary” in a parish when one is physically disconnected from Mass. As the Church faces the challenge that all organizations and many work places face in getting people back into organizations and in the office, it is really hard to explain this psychological truth – we, as human beings, have built-in feelings of belonging, a feeling of community and to feel “necessary.”

While live-streaming the Mass in the comfort of one’s home provides a real pastoral solution to those who are homebound due to illness and other issues, it never has been or is in the best interests of Jesus’ followers to worship Him in isolation from the community of believers.

At the first Mass of the Lord’s Supper, Jesus physically gathered his apostles around a table with Him for a reason – they became a visible community to support one another in their common goal of being the Body of Christ and supporting and loving one another in the proclamation of the Good News! Being with Jesus and with one another was the source of their strength. Coming together made each of them feel part of something important and “bigger” than themselves – being the witnesses of Christ to the world. As a parishioner after a recent Sunday Mass told me, “Father, it feels SO GOOD to be back at Mass!!!”

So, if you are reading this and still participating in the Mass virtually, I invite you back to Mass in-person. Re-gain a sense of belonging to Christ and to our community. I can assure you, on many levels, you will not regret it! God bless you!

Father Mike

The Virtue of Hospitality

Ministry Fair—Save the date—Sunday, September 18th! Are you wondering how to share your time • talent • treasure?

We are excited to announce the ministry fair is back!

- *Learn about our many ministries/service groups
- *Share what you love; see where you can plug-in your gifts at JGS!

Countdown to Covenant Sunday!

Save the date! Our annual, parish-wide Covenant Sunday celebration is slated for Sept. 25th. We can't wait to see you there!

If you are new to JGS, Covenant Sunday may be new to you, so here's the 411. Our whole parish comes together as a family and a community for one Outdoor Mass on Sunday, 9/25 at 11 a.m. During the Mass, we take a moment to renew our commitment to serve the Lord by evangelizing through our parish virtues of hospitality, spirituality, and stewardship.

The Mass is celebrated outside, so plan to BYOC (bring your own chair) or BYOB (bring your own blanket). Mass is followed by a tasty (and free!) lunch, desserts (families with last names from N-Z are asked to bring a dessert this year), and a variety of fun activities for the whole family.

We will have hayrides, a bounce house, face painting and crafts, a slip and slide (kids can bring a towel and swimsuit), our famous cake walk, carnival games, cornhole, kickball, a pie eating contest, and more!

How can you help?

Save the date and plan to be there on Sept. 25!

Fill out your scroll! We used to use paper scrolls, but now we ask members of the JGS community to complete a virtual scroll by checking off which parish ministries you will assist with in the upcoming year to help build up the Body of Christ. Stay tuned: Scrolls will be available soon!

Volunteer to help with Covenant Sunday set up or with an activity that day. Contact Liz Grover at wdcgrovers@yahoo.com to see how you can help.
